Charles R. Drew University of Medicine and Science

With approval of the academic program, students who previously left the University in good standing may be readmitted if grades from courses taken at other institutions have not changed their academic status.

Students on probation at the close of their last semester of enrollment may be readmitted and remain on probation.

Readmission of a student who was dismissed is by special action only. Readmission action is based on evidence that the causes of previous low achievement have been resolved. Students who were dismissed for ethical or behavioral reasons will not be readmitted.

I hereby certify that the information provided on this application is complete and correct to the best of my knowledge. I agree to observe and comply with all CDU policies in the current University Catalog.
